

Monthly Meetings

We meet on the fourth Tuesday of each month at the University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine Academic Building, 2015 SW 16th Avenue.

Fellowship begins at 7:00 pm and the meeting begins at 7:30 pm.

Visitors are welcome to attend all meetings except November and February, when special members-only events are held.

Monthly meetings in February, June, August, November, and December are replaced respectively by the Seafood and Awards Banquet, Fish Fry, Annual Social, Cookout and Auction, and your own Christmas holiday activities.

We ask visitors to join the club after two

The Gainesville Offshore Fishing Club is a non-profit family organization with a current membership of over 90 families who have a common interest in both inshore and offshore saltwater angling in North Central Florida.

While our name implies that we are only offshore fishermen, the club really has about an equal mix of inshore and offshore anglers with club meetings and programs equally divided between both types of fishing.

We hold monthly meetings, banquets and cookouts, club trips and, of course, a wide variety of fishing contests including tournaments and "learnaments".

Monthly meetings feature invited speakers discussing a variety of topics of

History of GOFC

GOFC is celebrating their 50th anniversary! GOFC was incorporated on August 16th, 1968. The first membership roster was established in 1969. Thirteen of the original members were still members in 1993.
